The limited edition Singapore Food Festival menu, is available at S$25+++

"Golden Village pays great attention to our Gold Class menu. We are continuously improving and updating the menu. Our Gold Class kitchen, led by chefs Chris Foo and Ronnie Ng have been inspired to serve up a local menu of popular favourites for this year's Singapore Food Festival," said Mr. David Glass, Managing Director, Golden Village Multiplex.

In addition to the menu designed for the SFF, the existing Gold Class menu has also been updated.

In improving the menu, Chef Chris and Ronnie have introduced 8 new items to the menu. Among which include Spring Rolls and Fried Ika Ball, under the Asian selection. In the Bakery section, they have added the Oven Baked Black Pepper Chicken Pie and Crispy Baked Tuna Puff. And if your preference is something a little more western, try the Gold Class Jumbo Hotdog and wash it down with a Soda Float – a great combo to pair off your Gold Class experience. If you are after a stronger beverage, discover the first single malt Scottish vodka in the world, Valt, at Golden Village Gold Class.

Chefs Chris and Ronnie, have between them almost 50 years of culinary experience. They were instrumental in designing the hugely popular menus for Ratatouille, No Reservations and more recently, the Sex And The City menu.

Chef Chris has had the privilege of cooking for Ministers the likes of Mr. Mah Bow Tan as well as the French and Danish Ambassadors to Singapore. Chef Ronnie, has honed his skills in New Zealand and China as well as having held leading roles at ISS Catering Services and at the Singapore Zoological Gardens. Chefs Ronnie and Chris also dedicate their time and skills, to the training of the kitchen staff at VivoCity. The right presentation, on well designed plates completes the preparation efforts.
