The Reason I Jump 1 April 2021 	Cast: Jim Fujiwara, David Mitchell, Jordan O'Donagan	Director: Jerry Rothwell	Genre: Documentary Rating: PG13
Synopsis: Based on the best-selling book by Naoki Higashida, THE REASON I JUMP is an immersive cinematic exploration of neurodiversity through the experiences of nonspeaking autistic people from around the world. The film blends Higashida's revelatory insights into autism, written when he was just 13, with intimate portraits of five remarkable young people. It opens a window for audiences into an intense and overwhelming, but often joyful, sensory universe. Moments in the lives of each of the characters are linked by the journey of a young Japanese boy through an epic landscape; narrated passages from Naoki's writing reflect on what his autism means to him and others, how his perception of the world differs, and why he acts in the way he does: the reason he jumps. The film distils these elements into a sensually rich tapestry that leads us to Naoki's core message: not being able to speak does not mean there is nothing to say.
The Box (Kor) 逐梦练习曲 1 April 2021 	Cast: Park Chan Yeol, Jo Joong Hwan	Director: Jeongwoong Yang	Genre: Drama, Music Rating: TBA
Synopsis: The jukebox musical film tells the story of Ji Hoon (Chanyeol), a talented musician that can only perform wearing a box over his head, and Min Soo (Jo Dal Hwan), a producer that values success before anything else. The intrigue builds as to how they will grow together throughout the film while on their busking journey.
